The Helen M. Kirby Hall was constructed through the efforts of the members of the Southern Methodist Church in the year 1924. It was dedicated to and named in honor of Mrs. Helen Marr Kirby, former Dean of Women of The University of Texas. The hall has a capacity of one hundred girls.

The dormitory is situated at the corner of North Guadalupe and Twenty-ninth Street. Its colonial structure, its comfortable furnishings, and its spacious lawns afford an inviting home of friendliness and welcome to every girl. Supervision of the dormitory is under the management of a local board composed of Mrs. T. A. Brown, Chairman, Mrs. W. K. Gohlke, Mrs. M. Jones, and Miss Lilia Casis.
